

Who are we?

Jeremiah's Field

is a loan fund to assist refugees through a difficult financial time or

to provide funding for a course or equipment that would greatly help refugees in getting on with their lives at a time when other sources of funding are not available to them.

Jeremiah's Field

welcomes all applicants treats every individual with respect and confidentiality.

provides a community that will share the applicant's hopes and supports the loan recipients through the repayments of their loan.

Jeremiah's Field takes its name from the prophet Jeremiah who lived 2,500 years ago in an area now known as the Middle East.

Jeremiah bought a field when his people's land was besieged and about to be overrun by enemies. (Jeremiah 32)

Jeremiah's Field is based on hope and faith in the future after hard times.

Our Policy

Jeremiah's Field

is a revolving loan fund that offers refugees no interest loans.

Funds are limited and are dependent on repayment of loans. Most loans will be for a few hundred dollars and normally will not exceed $1,000.00. Jeremiah's Field is not able to deal with emergency situations.

Applicants must submit a plan for repayment and must be able to start making monthly repayments.

Applicants will be interviewed and, if accepted, maintain a working relationship with Jeremiah's Field.

Applications will be reviewed at the first of each month and suitable applicants will then be contacted to arrange an interview time.

Laura Bryans and Isabel Warne made the initial generous donations that make Jeremiah's Field possible.

Jeremiah's Field continues to welcome donations to expand its work of providing loans to refugees.
